A: You can use Paybill 222222 and enter your account number as "BOMA" + Your ID (e.g., BOMA1234567). Ensure there are no spaces in the account number.

Q: Where do my voluntary savings go?

A: Your voluntary savings go into your Boma Yangu e-wallet, an individual account maintained for you by the Housing Fund. You can access them anytime and use them toward your deposit. You can view your transaction statements in your account.

Q: Can I withdraw my voluntary savings at any time?

A: Yes. You can apply for withdrawal of your savings at any time through the Boma Yangu portal. Refunds are processed in accordance with housing fund regulations. Refunds are typically processed within three months.

Q: How do I know the pricing for units?

A: Log into the Boma Yangu portal and navigate to Projects. You will see available projects with provisional unit prices categorized by unit type.

Q: What are the maximum selling prices for units?

A: The maximum prices are capped at:

Unit Type	Plinth Area (m ²)	Maximum Price (KES)
1 Bedroom	30 m ²	1,000,000
2 Bedroom	40 m ²	2,000,000
3 Bedroom	60 m ²	3,000,000

Q: What are the social housing prices?

A: Social housing units are priced at:

Unit Type	Price (KES)	Monthly TPS (KES)
Studio	640,000	3,900
1-Bedroom	960,000	5,350
2-Bedroom	1,280,000	6,800

Q: Once allocated, how are payments made and to whom?

A: All payments are made to the Affordable Housing Board. The offer letter sent to successful applicants will specify:

- Acceptable payment modes
- Sale terms
- Payment schedule

Payment options include outright cash purchase, home loans (via partner financial institutions), or the Tenant Purchase Scheme (TPS).

Q: Do my savings earn interest?

A: Yes. The Corporation (National Housing Corporation) sets the rate of return on contributions made by members. This return is credited to your individual Housing Fund Account. You will receive an annual benefit statement showing the summary of your account.

Q: How do I view my savings statement?

A: You can view your statement by:

- Logging in to your Boma Yangu account
- Accessing your e-wallet
- Viewing your transaction history and statements

You will also receive an annual benefit statement at the end of each financial year.
